Dear Daughter
received your very welcome letter glad to hear you have gotten over you cough we are all well, but mother she does not feel any to good. I sure be glad when this is over, still I hardly know what to write, I hope you heard that I am working on a old car that use to belong to John. Waldie will I have taken it all to piece and cleaned it out and it looks to me like a good buy. I have not got it fixed to gether yet so don't know how it will run, would have had is all faced by snow but I had to get some rings for it and they havent come yet I am to have the car for 75⁰⁰ if I wont it, if not I am to put it back in his shed where I got it from am making 5 fresh cows now and stripe striping & sell about 2 gallons of cream a week my corn stack will last till the first of april then if the rye dont show up I'll have to buy some hay, we butchered are ~~whenever~~ meat this week killed four that just makes a barrel full. I am some writer with a Pen

I'll try over ³ here and see if I can do any better
The boys around Gr. Pk. are full of them in this week, I am not going to put up any. Kumps are going to have a party tomorrow might don't know if we can go or not yet
Will show about as much news in this letter as there is in the Edgley mail but it all
good by take care of your

last addition
if you feel like trading
need worst no harm
have unlimited supply and who knows I might strike a mine of Jewels and ~~wouldnt~~ know what to do with them
will close hoping to hear from you soon and that you are both well and say if you bid any words misspelled reminds I have not got any glasses

For your father

Second Addition

you know I have to keep you posted on where to start reading or you might be like the poor in that regard you might read the same line over again now I'm I guess I address the last portion of this letter to you personally as Honey might get offended.

now do you know I am well aware of the fact that you are financially embarrassed, so will take the liberty to send you the 1 large some of Five Hundred cents now Five Hundred cents is five dollars and if worn as a watch charm or kept as a souvenir will last indefinitely, but but - but but next page
